The secret to being successful with all these clearings is to recognize that all these beings YOU invited to participate in your life.

While they may be playing the role or character of something that limits or confines you... that is the character role you ASKED them to play for you and that they AGREED to play for you.

You wanted or needed these beings to assist you in your process of descending in vibration. Now that you are choosing to increase your vibration you no longer require these beings services (gifts).

When you play the role of the victim...
you limit what you can do (or clear)*

When you step into the role of the creator of your life...
anything is possible.

What if it's just a matter of perspective?

Alternate Demon Clearing

You can't overpower demons, power is just play for them.
Rather, recognize YOU invited them to assist you.
Simply release you attachments and ask them to leave.

Say: "Everything that I said these demon's could do for me and everything I said I would do for these demon's, I now destroy and uncreate it all.
Right & Wrong, Good & Bad, POD & POC, All 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds."

Say: "Return to whence you came, never to return to me, this body or this reality again. Times a godzillion.
Right & Wrong, Good & Bad, POD & POC, All 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds."

Repeat until you feel light...

Creature Clearing

not an Access Clearing

This process can be used to clear all kinds of different creatures.

Ask: "Body and Being can you please show me all the creatures that are ready to leave?"

Allow yourself to perceive (how ever it shows up for you) these energies.

Say: "Everything that I said these creatures could do for me and everything I said I would do for these creatures, I now destroy and uncreate it all.
Right & Wrong, Good & Bad, POD & POC, All 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds."

(optional)

Say: "I now call in transport for these beings"
Imagine ships coming and docking with your body, the door opening and the creature getting on board.

Say: "Please take all of your belongings, eggs & seeds"
"Thank you, you may go now."
If you like, imagine the doors closing and the ships leaving.

(optional)

If you feel a "tugging" or a sense something doesn't want to leave:
"I destroy and uncreate all attachments,
Right & Wrong, Good & Bad, POD & POC, All 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds."

They leave behind all the support systems that you put in place in order to house them. They won't take it, just return it to the manufacturers.

"All the support systems for these creatures, I now destroy and uncreate my attachment to them, and return it all to senders with consciousness."
Right & Wrong, Good & Bad, POD & POC, All 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds."

These creatures don't return to you, but over time you will let go of additional creatures that are still in service to you, just clear these periodically.

If you feel sleepy afterwards, say:
"All drugs, alcohol, medication or chemicals, dissipate & release, dissipate & release, dissipate & release."
Right & Wrong, Good & Bad, POD & POC, All 9, Shorts, Boys & Beyonds."
